

Planning for the Future – What will be Different

Day One

Chair: Caroline Lamb

Time	Activity	Room
09.00-09.55	Registration and Refreshments	Centre Section
10.00	EVENT START	Presidents Suite 1
10.00-10.20	The Patient Journey Begins	Presidents Suite 1
10.20-10.40	Opening Address - Shona Robison, Cabinet Secretary for Health and Sport	Presidents Suite 1
10.40-11.00	“Planning for the Future” - Dr Martin McKechnie, STN National Clinical Lead - Kate Burley, STN Associate Director	Presidents Suite 1
11.00-11.50	“What will be Different?” Clinical Perspectives - North, East, South East and West Regions and the Scottish Ambulance Service	Presidents Suite 1
11.50-12.15	Measuring the Difference - KPIs - TBC	Presidents Suite 1
12.15-12.30	Questions	Presidents Suite 1
12.30-1.30	Lunch and Networking	Thistle Suite 1
1.30-2.00	The Patient Journey Continues... Trauma App - Dr David Lowe, Consultant in Emergency Medicine, Queen Elizabeth University Hospital, Glasgow	Presidents Suite 1
2.00-2.20	Supporting the System – Education - Karen Portas, Northern Trauma Network, NHS England	Presidents Suite 1
2.20-2.50	Workshops	Syndicate Spaces
2.50-3.10	Refreshments	Thistle Suite 1
3.10-3.40	Workshops	Syndicate Spaces
3.40-4.10	Planning for Paediatrics - Mr Carl Davis, Paediatric Surgeon, Queen Elizabeth University Hospital, Glasgow	Presidents Suite 1
4.10-4.40	A Resilient Scotland - Ray de Souza, Deputy Head, Health Resilience Unit, Scottish Government	Presidents Suite 1
4.40-5.00	Questions and Close - Caroline Lamb, Chief Executive, NHS Education Scotland Chair of STN Steering Group	Presidents Suite 1

Planning for the Future – What will be Different

Day Two

Chair: Dave Caesar

Time	Activity	Room
09.00-09.25	Registration and Refreshments	Centre Section
09.30	EVENT START
09.30-09.50	Opening Remarks - Dr Dave Caesar, National Clinical Advisor to the Chief Medical Officer (Scotland)	Presidents Suite 1
09.50-10.15	The Patient Journey Continues... Rehabilitation Why Scotland can't afford its current approach - Dr Alan Carson, Lead Clinician for the Scottish Acquired Brain Injury Network (SABIN)	Presidents Suite 1
10.15-11.15	Rehabilitation – A National Model - Colonel Jon Etherington, Director of Defence Rehabilitation - Dr Santanu Sarkar, Consultant Rehabilitation Medicine, North of Scotland Trauma Network	Presidents Suite 1
11.15-11.30	Refreshments	Thistle Suite 1
11.30-12.00	Planning for the Future - The Impact of Silver Trauma - Dr Maria Rossi, Director of Public Health, NHS Grampian	Presidents Suite 1
12.00-12.30	Pre-Hospital Care – A Systems Approach - Dr Tim Parke, Associate Medical Director, Scottish Ambulance Service	Presidents Suite 1
12.30-1.30	Lunch and Networking	Thistle Suite 1
1.30-2.10	What does trauma 'data' look like in Scotland? - Dr Malcolm Gordon, Chairman, Scottish Trauma Audit Group (STAG)	Presidents Suite 1
2.10-2.50	Data for improvement – what did Forth Valley do? - Dr Joanne Mitchell, - Dr Roger Alcock, Emergency Medicine Specialty Lead, NHS Forth Valley	Presidents Suite 1
2.50-3.30	Data for Research - TBC	Presidents Suite 1
3.30-3.45	Closing Remarks - Dr Catherine Calderwood, Chief Medical Officer	Presidents Suite 1