

Listed below are the key requirements needed to perform this job, candidates will be assessed against these criteria:

	Essential	Desirable
Qualifications	Postgraduate educational qualification	Registered Nurse, Paramedic or Doctor
Experience	Postgraduate experience and will have held enhanced responsibility in an education or healthcare post Experience and understanding of educational quality assurance and the education sector in the UK Experience in teaching and development of educational material A record of research and publication activity	Experience of providing education or training to GP's or other healthcare professionals Experience and knowledge in the field of immediate care education and training Experience in using tele-conferencing and other remote learning technologies to deliver education Previous experience of Clinical Governance in the NHS Experience in dealing with a variety of stakeholders involved with pre-hospital care
Knowledge	Knowledge of educational theories and their application Knowledge of Remote and Rural Healthcare Knowledge of the structure and organisations tasked with healthcare provision in Scotland Knowledge of Microsoft Office	Knowledge and understanding of pre-hospital care provision Knowledge of training equipment including manikins, simulators and medical equipment Knowledge of using new technologies to aid learning
Skills	The ability to work at the interface of healthcare and education Ability to communicate with a wide range of stakeholders Good interpersonal skills & excellent communication and presentation skills	